

Sisterhoods : across the literature media divide /

Pluto Press,
1998

Monografía

<https://rebiunoda.pro.baratznet.cloud:28443/OpacDiscovery/public/catalog/detail/b2FpOmNlbGVicmF0aW9uOmVzLmJhcmF0ei5yZW4vMTM1MzY0MDc>

Título: Sisterhoods across the literature media divide edited by Deborah Cartmell, H.Q. Hunter, Heidi Kaye and Imelda Whelehan

Editorial: [London?] Pluto Press 1998

Mención de serie: Film/fiction 3

Contenido: Angel or Sister?: writing and screening the heroine of Anne Bronte's The Tenant of Wildfell Hall Aleks Sierz. -- Little Women on the Big Screen: Heterosexual Womanhood as Social Performance Holly Blackford. -- Curiously Downbeat Hybrid or Radical Retelling?: Neil Jordans and Angela Carters The Company of Wolves Charlotte Crofts. -- Desirable transformations: Fin de siecles Fantasies of New Women and the Post-Cinematic Ideal Kate Holden. -- Representations of Sisterhood in the Lesbian Historical Fiction of the 1980s Paulina Palmer. -- Even the nice ones aren't nice: Sisterhood and feminist theory in the early films of Marlene Gorris, with particular reference to A Question of Silence Neil Sinyard. -- Mirror Images: Myths of Monstrosity in Death Becomes Her and Lorenzo's Oil Diana Postelthwaite. -- Woolf through the Lens of Campion: The Piano and The Voyage Out Chella Courington. -- The Difference of Viewing: Female Detectives in Fiction and on Film Siv Jansson. -- Exploits of the female sexual killer and the blunt cutting edge: Taking the knife to The Body of Evidence, The Michele Aaron. -- Slippage of Masks: Dis-guising Catwoman in Batman Returns, A Priscilla L. Walton

ISBN: 0745312187 0745312233 hbk.)

Baratz Innovación Documental

- Gran Vía, 59 28013 Madrid
- (+34) 91 456 03 60
- informa@baratz.es