Argumento: Starring Bernard Hill (Titanic, Lord Of The Rings) and Academy Award Nominee Catalina Sandino Moreno (Maria Full Of Grace, Che) Heart Of The Earth is an epic of the human spirits endurance in the face of fate and the march of history. Set around the sweeping backdrop of the vast wealth-baring mines of Andalusia's Rio Tinto in 1888, The Heart Of The Earth is the heart-wrenching story of two women from different worlds. Fiery Spaniard Blanca and British aristocrat Katherine have been friends since childhood. With their world steeped in turmoil and unrest, both women must struggle against the social upheaval that threatens their lives and their loves. As revolution threatens the fabric of the country, treachery and betrayal become common currency. In order to hold onto that friendship, they must make a terrible choice before Rio Tinto erupts into violence and tragedy.
