

The Kirov celebrates Nijinsky : firebird

Digital Classics Distribution,
2002

Filmed dance

Material Proyactable

Firebird, together with other works originated during the Saisons Russes, lifted ballet from an art viewed as at best inconsiderable to one that electrified people across Europe. This Kirov staging of Fokine's Firebird recreates the scenery and costumes created for the original production. Diana Vichneva dances the title role. This live recording comes from the Théâtre du Châtelet, Paris
