Analítica

This present work intends to analyze the evolution of legal-administrative regulation of tourist intermediation in Spain, with special reference to the travel agencies in the Autonomous Community of Andalusia. All this, under the prism of the new Directive 2015/2302 from the European Parliament and the Council of the European Union, 25 November, relative to combined travel and linked travel services that were abolished in the former Directive 90/314/CEE, 13 June, relative to combined travel, combined holidays, and combined tours
