Analítica

The poem Oración por Marilyn Monroe, by Ernesto Cardenal, was written after this famous North American actress' death. Using a prayer as a structure, the poet moves the reader to wonder about different social questions. The article studies the structure, the participants and the different literary methods that are used for constructing this poem. Especially, it refers to the elements that contribute to the pragmatic character of the text and their effect on the reader.
