Analítica

In the 4th century A.D. the Romans found in their own religious convictions and in their own culture reasons to believe in the practices of the diviners. One of the main features in the pagan mentality is to be found in the natural events as the outcome of divine intervention and a consequence of the messages sent to men to stimulate the execution of projects. Divination and presages will not Buffer a process of decay during the said century and Ammianus Marcellinus seems to be trying to find in his Res Gestae justification of the practices mentioned
