Analítica

Argentina's history has proven not to be free from abuses of power, messianic ambitions, restrictions and suppression of rights. While is not the main focus of work to examine the various attacks to the principle of separation of powers in our Constitution, it never hurts to make a humble contribution to the defense of the most important means of defense that is our democratic system. The main purpose of this article is to try to outline what are some of the control mechanisms established by our fundamental law who happen to be a major weapons with which we the citizens to give effect to the exercise of our rights against power
