Analítica

From the perspective of Latin American philosophy, the contribution done by Juan Carlos Scannone is undeniable. Theologian and philosopher, his purpose was to establish philosophical categories of thought that answer to Latin American problems from their ethical-historical-cultural nucleus. The objective of this article is to propose some contributions for an inculturation in Philosophical Anthropology from the Latin American thought developed by Scannone. These contributions are the result of a thesis for a Bachelor of Philosophy, whose director was Scannone himself
