Analítica

The purpose of this article is to review and compile the regulations related to the possession of different kinds of animals in Colombia, as well as to provide a comparative analysis of the terms domestic, wild and exotic employed in Colombian legislation and the biological concepts of the same notions. We found that some of the existing definitions are general and may cause interpretation problems when applying the regulations. Colombia is a country with legislation that, with respect to fauna, has prioritized in the protection of wild species, and recently has incorporated aspects related to animal welfare. However, the absence of specific regulations on the possession of exotic fauna may lead to the increase of illegal situations, and its consequent risks for ecosystems
