Analítica

The curriculum of New Technologies, from the past (1992) to nowadays (2004). Starting at the 1993 Sevillas Meeting and through the previous JUTE gatherings, the current syllabus at the University of Zaragoza is presented. It will be showed how, from a situation in which the main points were the theoretical reflection and the epistemological and audiovisual themes, to a new syllabus where informatics and its surrounding areas (mass-media, multimedia, etc.) are the predominant matters. Two tables are showed: one of them with the syllabus of New Technologies of several Spanish universities and the other one with the contents that are included in the handbooks published within the referenced period
