Analítica

We display an article which we are trying to explain from our point of view one of the most fascinating aspects in of the prieguenseethnography: the traditional elements of protection opposite to supernatural power, rites and in the belief of them. A short introduction and a necessary explanation must be made regarding the superstition's key ideas, blessing and sympathy magic. We will take over a thematic way which our obsession consists on having a relationship in between prieguensesprotector traditions and the other cultures nowadays or in the past, almost always in the Mediterranean context and above all, in the Andalusian one. To finalize, we will explain the importance of the Nazarene figure as a prieguenseProtector
