Analítica

In a theoretical brief, based on the methodology of content analysis and hermeneutics, an examination is made of humanitarian rights as a prospective for human rights in Latin America, in the face of the current excessive crisis, evidenced by abuses, excesses, injustices and inequities, which have triggered, as a corollary, the loss of human dignity, the supreme entity of the world. In the face of such moral devastation, and once the theoretical references set forth have been examined, it is essential to conclude how societies should retake the foundations that have served as the teleological basis for legislation in Latin America, seeking, as a solution, the true humanizing purpose that efficiently shapes the legislative spirit and daily practice
