

The late regulations respecting the British colonies on the continent of America considered : in a letter from a gentleman in Philadelphia to his friend in London. : [Two lines in Latin]

Dickinson, John (1732-1808)

Printed and sold by William Bradford, at the corner of Market and Front-Streets., M. DCC. LXV. [1765]

Electronic books

Monografía

<https://rebiunoda.pro.baratznet.cloud:38443/OpacDiscovery/public/catalog/detail/b2FpOmNlbGVicmF0aW9uOmVzLmJhcmF0ei5yZW4vMzI1NDg2MDI>

Título: The late regulations respecting the British colonies on the continent of America considered in a letter from a gentleman in Philadelphia to his friend in London. : [Two lines in Latin]

Editorial: Philadelphia Printed and sold by William Bradford, at the corner of Market and Front-Streets. M. DCC. LXV. [1765]

Descripción física: 1 online resource (38, [2] pages)

Mención de serie: Eighteenth century collections online

Nota general: Attributed to John Dickinson in the Dictionary of American biography Two states noted: in one, page 11 ends "would be generally believed without the trial"; in the other, "would be credited without the trial." "Errata."--Page 38

Citas: Evans 9950 Hildeburn, C.R. Pennsylvania 2118 Adams, T.R. Amer. pamphlets 10a

Copyright/Depósito Legal: 456755472 511071333 722511342 728434056 734041069 1098859515 1125863849

Materia Entidad: Great Britain. Stamp Act (1765) Great Britain

Materia Título preferido: Loi du timbre 1765) Stamp Act (Great Britain : 1765)

Materia: British colonies. Economic policy. Politics and government.

Materia Geográfica: Gran Bretaña- Colonies- América- Economic policy Estados Unidos- Politics and government- To 1775 Grande-Bretagne- Colonies- Amérique- Politique économique États-Unis- Politique et gouvernement- Jusqu'à 1775 América Estados Unidos

Baratz Innovación Documental

- Gran Vía, 59 28013 Madrid
- (+34) 91 456 03 60
- informa@baratz.es