

An account of the life and character of Sir Chomley Deering : Bar. and Knight of the Shire for the county of Kent in the present Parliament ; who was Unfortunately shot in a duel on Wednesday Morning the 9th of May, by his own friend and kinsman, Col. Thornhill. With the true Relation of their falling out, and the manner of their Fighting ; as also the Expressions of Sorrow that pass'd between them afterwards. Together with a new Elegy on his Death

Printed by J. Read, near Fleet-Street,
1711

Early works. Poems.

Monografía

Título: An account of the life and character of Sir Chomley Deering Bar. and Knight of the Shire for the county of Kent in the present Parliament ; who was Unfortunately shot in a duel on Wednesday Morning the 9th of May, by his own friend and kinsman, Col. Thornhill. With the true Relation of their falling out, and the manner of their Fighting ; as also the Expressions of Sorrow that pass'd between them afterwards. Together with a new Elegy on his Death

Editorial: London Printed by J. Read, near Fleet-Street 1711

Descripción física: 1 online resource (8 pages) illustrations

Citas: English Short Title Catalog N26576

Copyright/Depósito Legal: 734075763 1098811915

Materia Nombre: Deering, Chomley Sir-- Early works to 1800

Materia: Elegiac poetry, English- Early works to 1800 Poésie élégiaque anglaise- Ouvrages avant 1800 Elegiac poetry, English.

Baratz Innovación Documental

- Gran Vía, 59 28013 Madrid
- (+34) 91 456 03 60
- informa@baratz.es