Analítica

In this work the Bibliografía Temática de Historiografía Lingüística Española - Apéndice 1 (2008-2020) [BiTe-Ap1], a digital project that compiles the secondary sources of Spanish Linguistic Historiography from 2008 to 2020 and constitutes a continuation of the Bibliografía Temática (Esparza et al. 2008), is presented. The usefulness of this bibliography is proved, not only as reference material, but specially as a metahistoriographic tool, through quantitative and qualitative analysis of the records on school grammar, syntax and missionary linguistics. In this regard, it helps detect the most explored researching areas on the History of Spanish Linguistics, as well as to establish the foundations for future studies within this discipline
