Analítica

Continuing with our intention of bringing to memory and remembrance a series of architectural elements that at one time meant a display of monumentality or at least of less use in the urban development of Cieza, today's article refers to the old barracks of the Civil Guard. Urban structure so linked to the appearance of the peoples of Spain. Municipal property and with a project -which we take for the first time- of the distinguished architect D. Justo Millán (this building does not appear in the catalog of his works) was not an obstacle for the presumed watchmen of his property, and conservation, the same city council, get rid of it, as it was done with the Little Poster, the Jail... and why continue
