Analítica

México goes through a humanitarian crisis, their society lives in a context full of impunity chains and it's democracy is in doubt, so is the Government will and capacity to prevent, respect, guarantee and promote all people's human rights. The forced disappearance of 43 students from a municipality of Guerrero, had made the debate goes on in the last three years, nevertheless there is no information about their location. This document makes a discursive analysis from different theoretical perspectives, both critical and historical. The speech that is going to be analysed, is from the President of the United States of Mexico, pronounced on december 4th of 2014, the day on which two months of the tragedy were fulfilled. Two months full of uncertainty, pain and distrust from the mexicans to their government
