Analítica

Or present article aims to analyze the Jesuit experience by two printed matters of Kiriri. I do not intend to discuss the strategies of conversation carried out by missionaries that took place next to Kiriri, the cultural translation process in the second half of the XVII century together with misson of bonder of Bahia. Courte Company of Jesus to guardianship two natives of Nairobi Kiriri, which is located on the São Francisco River. During this period of reordering two colonial dominions and the implantation of new villages, a significant documentary corpus was produced, dealing with the request of Indians, news about the villages, descriptions of two areas for the development of new instruments that would help a communication. For or assistance to these requests, we have carried out linguistic studies, with the purpose of systematizing and standardizing local languages and, as such, making possible communication to a pretended converse
