Analítica

The Colegios Mayores are organizations with great tradition, both in Spain and in Europe. This paper aims to approach one of them, the Colegio Mayor Santa Cruz in Valladolid, during the period from 1968 to 1981. The research focuses on the economic and accounting viewpoint and is framed in the studies of primary documents located in different archives and the study of relevant laws and rules with influence in Santa Cruz, without forgetting the compilation of secondary sources. Once all the information is disposed, we shall proceed to the description, analysis and explanation of the incomes and expenses of this organization grouped in an income statement, called Cuenta de Residencia, through a vertical analysis, and the importance of the elaboration of this accounting statement for management and decision making in Santa Cruz. As well as, discovering how that information was being used and interrelating accounting developments in economic, social and legal contexts of the time, in order to extract the greatest amount of economic information from this accounting document
