Analítica

Cantalenguas is an educational singing contest, at provincial level, with songs in any foreign language. It is organized by the Córdoba Teacher Training Centre. It seeks to promote foreign language learning through the use of music, as well as the acquisition of basic skills among students, such as linguistic and artistic competence. It supports plurilingualism at schools and the training of Music and Language specialists. The contest is the practical result of the Teacher Training activity called "Languages and Music", supported by the Professional Languages and Music Network hosted on the Moodle Platform of our Centre. The above mentioned Network is used by Languages and Music teachers to think about, discuss and put into practise their ideas on the use of songs as a common tool in the teaching of Foreign Languages
