Analítica

The archaeological site of El Berrueco, between the provinces of Salamanca and Ávila, it has been and it is a settlement of immense historical value. Exchanges of objects between the Meseta and southern peninsular used this crossing point, where have been preserved important testimonies of orientalizing influence. Among these evidences we found a remarkable number of fibulae of different types, which we have used for a study that allows us to know more and better the nature of the contacts with the southern peninsular and posible orientalizing inspiration from them
