Analítica

According to the European Commission press release (29 July 2016) regarding last Eurobarometer (Spring 2016): 'Europeans see immigration and terrorism as the major challenges facing the EU at the moment'. The Islamic State is claiming the expansion of the Kalifate in order to occupy all the territories that once upon a time were under Muslim domination. This aggressive policy shows certain analogies with the theory of the living space ("Lebensraum") that the Third Reich used to justify the occupation of territories and the war. This article intends to make a brief analysis about the common points of such radical ideologies (National Socialism / Radical Islamism), the threats and risks for Europe and possible solutions to face the problem
