Augustin Dumay is one of the last representatives of the great European classical tradition. His distinctive place as the grand classical stylist amongst the violinists of our time has been corroborated by his outstanding recordings of the Mozart concertos, and Beethoven's complete sonatas for violin and piano. This masterclass, from the Queen Elisabeth Music Chapel in Waterloo, Belgium, features students Alexandra Cooreman (winner of the 2013 Bärenreiter Prize), Kerson Leong (winner of the junior Menuhin prize 2010), and Liya Petrova (winner of the 2016 Carl Nielsen prize) Repertoire: Kerson Leong Brahms: Violin Sonata No. 1 in G, Op. 78 - I. Vivace, ma non troppo
