This TV movie, based on the novel of the same name by Mary Mapes Dodge, stars Robin Askwith (U-571) as the noble but poor Hans Brinker, who must struggle to keep his poor family afloat in the wake of an accident that left his father unable to work. The tale provides a realistic look at Dutch family life in the 19th century, and has since become a classic story in children's literature. Directed by Robert Sheerer (The Love Boat, Star Trek: The Next Generation), the movie provides a classic example of the made-for-TV feature length musicals which were popular in the 1960's and 1970's
