

Family engagement in child welfare video series

Internet videos. Educational films. Video recordings for the hearing impaired. Video recordings.

Material Projectable

Describes two model parent peer programs enacted successfully in Contra Costa County, California, and Clark County, Nevada that increased child safety and family unit permanency and reduced foster care placements

<https://rebiunoda.pro.baratznet.cloud:28443/OpacDiscovery/public/catalog/detail/b2FpOmNlbGVicmF0aW9uOmVzLmJhcmF0ei5yZW4vMzQwMjYzNzk>

Título: Family engagement in child welfare video series

Editorial: [Washington, D.C.? ] Child Welfare Information Gateway [2012?]

Descripción física: 1 online resource (10 video files (36 min., 16 sec.)) sound, color

Variantes del título: Child welfare video series Contains subseries Parents helping parents series Contains subseries Supporting kin-caregivers series

Nota general: Title from video series home page (viewed Jan. 22, 2014) "Brought to you by National Technical Assistance and Evaluation Center for Systems of Care ... [which] is funded by the Children's Bureau, Administration for Children and Families, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, under Federal contract no.: GS-23F-8062H"--Parents helping parents video, final credits screen Closed-captioned and open-captioned versions available Accompanied by two discussion guides in PDF format Videorecordings available in both streaming (FLV files, sd., col.) and downloadable (WMV and MOV files, sd., col.) file formats

Contenido: Parents helping parents series. Parents helping parents -- What does it take to be a parent partner? -- Changing the culture of the agency -- Overcoming fears and resistance -- Building and sustaining the program -- Parent partners: personal stories -- Supporting kin-caregivers series. Supporting kin-caregivers -- What does it take to be a kinship specialist? -- Overcoming fears and resistance -- Keeping families together: personal stories

Audiencia: State and local child welfare administrators, trainers, supervisors, and caseworkers

Detalles del sistema: System requirements: multimedia software player capable of playing Windows Media , QuickTime, and/or Flash video files; Adobe Acrobat for viewing PDF files

Materia: Aid to families with dependent children programs- United States Family services- United States Child welfare- Services for- United States Mentoring in social service- United States Volunteer workers in child welfare- United States Child welfare- United States- Citizen participation Social service- United States- Citizen participation

Entidades: Child Welfare Information Gateway (U.S.) issuing body National Technical Assistance and Evaluation Center for Systems of Care (U.S.) sponsoring body

Baratz Innovación Documental

- Gran Vía, 59 28013 Madrid
- (+34) 91 456 03 60
- informa@baratz.es