Analítica

Pedro Franqueza, Count of Villalonga, the Secretary of King Phillip III of Spain, was detained on January 19, 1607, and kept in prison until his death. Immediately after his detention a satirical poem about him and his arrest began to circulate. This poem, recently discovered in a contemporary manuscript, is an outstanding example of the political ballad of the seventeenth century. This, indeed, is a very little known genre because it was rarely printed and was circulated only in manuscript and, of course, in the oral tradition
