Analítica

This work is aimed to point out the importance of the literary document as a historical source. After a short study of the small village of Sotuélamos, a nice retreat situated to the north-west of the municipality of El Bonillo, and after dealing with a deep analysis of some historical events that took place in the area during the so-called "the times of Don Quixote" at the beginning of the 17th century, there is some evidence of the great similarity with the characters and the places which appear in the classic masterpiece "El Ingenioso Hidalgo Don Quijote de la Mancha". This similarity is even more obvious in the stories and adventures corresponding to the third knightly outing which deal with the Camacho's wedding, which are narrated in chapters XIX, XX and XXI of the Second Part of the novel. It is this similarity which makes us think that Cervantes based the passage of Camacho's wedding on a real wedding that was held in the village of Sotuélamos, and even that Camacho himself was a young man from the Pacheco dynasty, owners of those lands
