Analítica

In this paper I analyze the phases of the administrative procedure of military order s local office concession. The main objective is to offer an overview of this bureaucratic procedure in its first stageat the Council of the military orders. This first stage began with the formal submission of theapplicant srequest document and service-merits account and then finalizedwiththe King s grant concession. Further, I analyzethe institutional chain to unravel the administration s functioningthrough itsinvolved actors, itsphasesof instruction, its documentaryrecords, and, ultimately, the monarch s final decision. This paper also includes an approach to the recipient s socio-professionalprofiles, their narratives and arguments to achieve the grant, and the meaning that the Crown gave to these grants. The results illuminate the functioning of the Council of the Military Orders as well as the political and institutional dynamics during thereign of Felipe III, 1598-1621
