Analítica

Are the accessibility, versatility and interactivity of the internet and socio-digital platforms the keys to a truly emancipatory communication or, on the contrary, a mechanism of domination, so effective thus as the democratic illusion they looks? Between the cyberoptimistic and cyberpessimistic visions, the renewed academic interest in the role of communication in the positioning of subordinate social groups, as proposed by this review, will have to focus on gathering empirical evidence from which more knowledge can be built thoughtful and inclusive
