Analítica

In this text I present an interview I conducted with Prof. Dr. Milagros Elena Rodriguez. Milagros Elena Rodríguez, virtually, during the months of October and November 2021. My purpose with the interview, besides paying tribute to her, is evidently to provide opportunities for the knowledge of the trajectories followed by different researchers. Knowing more about the history, memory and training of Professor Milagros Elena Rodríguez allows us to better understand her work, as well as the transformative perspective that nurtures it. During the text, we address her childhood memories in Venezuela, her choice for education and mathematics, as well as very recent aspects of her work
