Analítica

This text aims to present a fieldwork done with the 14th Military Police Battalion of the State of Paraná, having as interviewed the Public Relations of the 14th BPM, sector P5, Captain André, who provided us the position of security force about smuggling and embezzlement, and what is the participation of the MP in the fight against such activities. For this we used an interview without a closed structure, having as a guiding thread what we already knew about the illicit activity in focus, seeking to understand the participation of the Military Police in this fight, the position of the police in relation to the "sacoleiros" and "laranjas", and the results of this work. We also use bibliographic data about the origin of PM in Paraná. We hope at the end of the text to provide useful information to understand how the action of the MP takes place, asking the agents themselves, knowing the battalion that organizes such action, and what the fruits of this work
