Monografía

This is everyone's story, not just Lilly Hunt's. Who hasn't endured peer pressure and fought low self-esteem? Who hasn't been angry over losses, and heartbroken at losing a loved one? Whose life hasn't been impacted with the scourge of an addiction? Who hasn't stumbled under the weight of forgiving someone? Or, harder yet, forgiving oneself? It isn't only Lilly who questions why life is so hard, and what IS the point, anyway? Like Lilly, we wonder - when we set this world down - what will be behind death's door? Lilly discovers what lies far beyond that door. And now, you just may too
