

All-American horror of the 21st century : the first decade : 2000-2010 /

Castle, Mort,
editor

short stories. Horror fiction. Short stories. Short stories. Horror fiction. Nouvelles.

Monografía

"All American Horror of the 21st Century is a compilation of the best short horror fiction published by magazines, anthologies, and websites between 2000 and 2010. These stories deal with 'uniquely American' themes and subjects, and are written in an equally unique 'American style.' Contributors include National Book Award-nominee Dan Chaon, rising horror star Jeff Jacobson, World-Fantasy award winner Andy Duncan, New York Times-bestselling authors Tom Monteleone, David Morrell, F. Paul Wilson, Nick Mamatas, Jay Bonansinga, Bram Stoker Awards winners Jack Ketchum, Steve Rasnic Tem, Paul Tremblay, Sarah Langan, and many others. This is the only book to offer wide-ranging but always modern, uniquely American horror stories"--Back cover

<https://rebiunoda.pro.baratznet.cloud:28443/OpacDiscovery/public/catalog/detail/b2FpOmNlbGVicmF0aW9uOmVzLmJhcmF0ei5yZW4vMzY5MDc4ODc>

Título: All-American horror of the 21st century the first decade : 2000-2010 edited by Mort Castle

Editorial: Roma, Italy Independent Legions Publishing 2016

Descripción física: 1 online resource (412 pages)

Nota general: Cover title

ISBN: 9788899569327 8899569320

Materia: Horror tales, American Récits d'horreur américains Horror tales, American.

Autores: Castle, Mort, editor

Baratz Innovación Documental

- Gran Vía, 59 28013 Madrid
- (+34) 91 456 03 60
- informa@baratz.es

