Nota general: Available as streaming audio, streaming video, or as downloadable MP3 files Listeners can subscribe and listen using podcast applications or browsers, including: Blubrry (podcast host), YouTube, and iTunes "DARPA's podcast series, "Voices from DARPA," offers a revealing and informative window on the minds of the Agency's program managers. In each episode, a program manager from one of DARPA's six technical offices-- Biological Technologies, Defense Sciences, Information Innovation, Microsystems Technology, Strategic Technology, and Tactical Technology--will discuss in informal and personal terms why they are at DARPA and what they are up to. The goal of "Voices from DARPA" is to share with listeners some of the institutional know-how, vision, process, and history that together make the "secret sauce" DARPA has been adding to the Nation's innovation ecosystem for nearly 60 years"--Home page
