Analítica

This article aims to be a contribution to the article by R. Salas Astraín developed within the ECOS-Sud project around contextual justice. The issue will be addressed based on the definition of experiences of injustice developed by E. Renault, to delve deeper into the decolonial/intercultural critical device that is proposed, and then move towards some observations derived from the works of R. Kusch around the problems associated with the interpretation of experiences of injustice and their institutional projection
