

Public Health and the American State /

Di Tommaso, Gaetano,

editor

Fazzi, Dario,

editor

Scott-Smith, Giles,

editor

Monografía

Explores the importance of public health for understanding the transformation of American power, both domestically and internationally, over the past century

<https://rebiunoda.pro.baratznet.cloud:28443/OpacDiscovery/public/catalog/detail/b2FpOmNlbGVicmF0aW9uOmVzLmJhcmF0ei5yZW4vMzc3ODM0MjU>

Título: Public Health and the American State edited by Gaetano Di Tommaso, Dario Fazzi, and Giles Scott-Smith

Edición: First edition

Editorial: Edinburgh Edinburgh University Press [2024] 2024

Descripción física: 1 online resource (265 pages)

Nota general: Includes index

Contenido: Intro -- List of Illustrations -- Notes on Contributors -- Introduction -- 1 Beyond Control of Local Authorities: The Spanish Influenza Epidemic and Federal Supervision of Public Health -- 2 The United States in Two Pandemics: The American Century and the Costs of American Culture -- 3 The Politics of Public Health: Disease and Medical Authority in Twentieth-Century America -- 4 From the 'Lung Block' to the 'China Virus': Public Health, Xenophobia and US Identity Formation over the American Century -- 5 Oil, Progress and Public Health in the Early Twentieth Century -- 6 Simkins v. Cone and the Hospital Desegregation Movement in the Long Twentieth Century -- 7 Better Dead than Red, or Not? Nuclear Physics and Public Health at the Dawn of the Cold War -- 8 Fighting the Cold War and Variola: The American Commitment to Smallpox Eradication -- 9 Brother's Brother Foundation in Costa Rica: A Case Study in Public-Private Partnerships and Global Health in the American Century -- 10 AIDS and Reproductive Rights in the American Century -- 11 The Making of Entitled Consumers: Neoliberal Ideas in the Medicare Modernization Act of 2003 -- 12 'Real Men Wear Masks': COVID-19 and the Crisis of American Masculinity -- Conclusion -- Index

ISBN: 9781399519366 1399519360 9781399519359 1399519352

Materia: COVID-19 Pandemic, 2020-2023 Influenza Epidemic, 1918-1919 Medical policy- United States- History- 20th century

Autores: Di Tommaso, Gaetano, editor Fazzi, Dario, editor Scott-Smith, Giles, editor

Baratz Innovación Documental

- Gran Vía, 59 28013 Madrid
- (+34) 91 456 03 60
- informa@baratz.es