Manuscripts, Hebrew 19th century

Monografía

Six responsa, of which the first two are in one hand and the remainder in another. The responsa deal with the writing of the Holy Scrolls, Halitsah, Yibum, lawfulness of cutting the body of a deceased pregnant woman in order to remove the child, and the ban promulgated by the Rabbis of Hamburg against the use of any language other than Hebrew in the services and against playing the organ in the synagogues. There are numerous authorities cited in these responsa, like: ha-Rama, Mahar.i Elgazi, Bet Yosef, ha-Reem, ha-Hida and others. The first five leaves contain all sorts of Kabbalistic remedies and incantations represented in diverse figures
