The god of Socrates has once previously been translated, (by Thomas Taylor), but the Florida, and the Apologia or Defence, are now given in English for the first time. The able metrical version of Cupid and Psyche, first published in 1801 anonymously, is attributed to the pen of Hudson Gurney, Esq. The well-known poem of Psyche by Mrs. Tighe is adjoined, because of its appropriateness and merit. It was highly popular at the time of its first publication, went through several large editions, and was elaborately reviewed and praised in the Quarterly review of May, 1811." --Page ix
